

Cardiology Outpatient Workflow

Fictional hospital workflow

Patients check in before their scheduled appointment.

Registration staff verify demographic and appointment information.

The clinical team reviews the referral reason and available records.

Diagnostic tests are ordered when clinically appropriate.

Authorized clinical staff review test results.

Follow-up timing is determined by the clinical assessment and treatment plan.

Patients receive follow-up instructions and escalation guidance.