

Emergency Department Admission Protocol

Fictional hospital policy

Patients arriving with urgent symptoms are directed to emergency reception.

Registration records identity, contact details, arrival time, and presenting concern.

Clinical staff perform initial triage and assign an appropriate priority.

Life-threatening presentations are escalated without routine administrative delay.

Triage category and relevant observations are documented.

Billing questions should not delay urgent clinical assessment.

Admission or discharge decisions are made by the responsible clinical team.