

Infection Prevention Basics

Fictional hospital policy

Hand hygiene follows the hospital-approved hand-hygiene procedure.

Personal protective equipment is selected according to anticipated exposure risk.

Reusable clinical equipment is cleaned and disinfected using approved procedures.

Patients with suspected communicable infections may require additional precautions.

Exposure incidents should be reported promptly.

Visitors should follow posted infection-control instructions and temporary restrictions.