

Pharmacy Medication Safety Policy

Fictional hospital policy

Medication orders are reviewed by authorized pharmacy or clinical personnel.

Patient identity is confirmed before dispensing or administration.

Medication name, strength, form, route, and timing are checked against the authorized order.

Allergies and relevant medication history are reviewed when available.

Unclear orders are clarified before dispensing when appropriate.

Medication errors and near misses are documented through the safety process.